FOREWORD

It is with great pride that we present the "68" Book of 1938 dedicated to the class of '38. This volume contains personal sentiments, ideals and spirit. You have all contributed to these, and we are sure that you will find this volume stimulating and inspiring.

The greatest mistake upon selecting college is the failure to become oriented. To what extent do you want to adjust yourself to the intellectual and social environment of college life? Once you are committed to your independent judgment, you must concentrate on the tasks, studies, and social activities that you want to undertake.

College and college life must be planned. The college must be a place to develop your potentialities, to learn, to grow, and to enjoy. Therefore, you must decide on the type of college life you want to lead. The college itself is the institution of learning, but it is the college that you make it. It is the college that you choose, the college that you attend, and the college that you live in. The college is the place where you will experience the fullness of college life.

The "68" Book is a record of your college life, and it is meant to be a source of inspiration and motivation for you in your future endeavors.

PRESIDENT A. R. UPHAM

THE PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

Whatever else a college experience may be, it is certainly an opportunity. Here you get your chance. Here there are great man-made marvels for you to see. Here you will make the acquaintance of people you would never have met before. Here you will see your opportunities and youth by them. If you live up to these expectations you will grow more during the first four years on campus than you will in character and maturity in the next four years of your life.

Much depends on how you get started. Here again we have tried to make the process as easy and natural as possible. We have tried to make it easy for you to get your classes started and become registered. We have tried to make it easy for you to apply for a family soldier in hope confidence that we can be proud and happy. We have seen, but you learned what a finely-tuned Miami is.

We all hope that you will sincerely and faithfully endeavor to make the most of the unique opportunity that Miami offers you.

A. H. UPHAM, President
HISTORY OF MIAMI UNIVERSITY

Miami University was the second institution of higher learning established by the Federal Government in the part of Ohio included in the Ohio Legislature in 1803. One year later, the site of the college was located at the village of Town Creek, in Ohio County, and a charter was issued. However, the school was annexed to the University of Cincinnati in 1820.

In 1823, the University was re-established at Oxford, Ohio, and the site of the college was moved to the present location. The college was incorporated in 1824 and was named Miami University in honor of the Miami Indians.

All Miami women are asked to conduct themselves in such a way as not to attract public attention, or to reflect upon the standards of Miami University.

SORORITIES

Sororities may enroll as part of the social life of Miami. Membership in these societies always comes through an initiation and formal recognition process. During high school, girls are entertained at the sorority meetings in order to acquire them with the members. The sorority may seek girls that they believe would make good members but that may be interested in finding a "sorority" for their college life. The sorority makes sure that the girl they wish to "invite" and be interested in their society has been turned in by the fat cold woman, a revolution, and once that has been established, the sorority prefers to invite and accept other girls that they believe will fit into the organization.

A girl must be a "sorority" a certain length of time before she can become an active member. This varies from sorority to sorority and from university to university. The amount of time varies from a few months to a year. The sorority and the chapter choose who will be a sorority and becomes more acquainted with her sister. At any time during this period, either party may discontinue their relationship and the "sorority" pin is returned.

Security: Such work is a better time for the girl who has carefully considered the various groups she has met and one which she is most compatible with her friends and others.

The following questions may be of help in determining the selection of a sorority:

Are the members of this group the type that I have always been interested in?

Do I feel that I would be able to work well with the members of the sorority?

Am I financially able to join?

Your residence in college does not depend upon being affiliated with a sorority. Later in the college years it may be necessary to consult with your college or university in order to become affiliated with a sorority as well as being a sorority.

The sorority on the Miami campus is as follows:

Alpha Omicron Pi. Founded at Harvard, 1897. Chapter at Miami, 1914.

Bachelor of Science. Founded at Vigo State College, 1919. Chapter at Miami, 1924.

HONORARIES

When University students are asked questions about Miami by future freshmen, they are prone to tell all about its greatness and the advantages it offers. Perhaps the biggest advantage is the undergraduate scholarship. Scholarship is the most important phase of a student's life. Taking for granted that all incoming freshmen are interested in getting the most out of their college life, they are more likely to be interested in learning just what is required by their University before receiving recognition for their efforts. Thus, the incoming freshman who hopes to receive from the University the scholarship he needs will begin to study with the hope of being successful, which is a great advantage in planning for a scholarship.

Governing the awards of scholarships is the scholarship committee. It is composed of representatives from the faculty and students. The number of scholarship students that a scholarship committee can determine depends on the amount of money that is available. If the committee is drawing up a list of scholarship students for a year, it is likely to be very long. There are a number of students whose grades are considered high and who are likely to receive scholarships. These students are assigned to the scholarship committee by the faculty member who considers them to be the most likely to make good grades.

To the incoming freshman, the immediate array of honors which exist at Miami University is probably bewildering. It may seem as though the world is divided into two groups: those who exist in the world of scholarship and those who are far away from it. This is not true. Scholarships exist to help students meet their educational goals. If you are one of those who are not interested in scholarship, you are not alone. There are students who are not interested in scholarship. They do not care whether they are eligible for the scholarships that Miami gives; they do not desire them.

BASKETBALL

From the start of the season until its close, Coach Raymer's team was filled with hope but in the last three games of the season, the guard and front line were in a rut under such handicaps as three, two, and four men out, due to illness and injuries.

Ohio U, in their first Buckeye game, fell to the Buffalo Bulls 11-38, and the following day, they fell to the Penn Quakers 26-35 under the leadership of Coach Frank. This was an exceptionally close and hard fought game.

Although the Miami prospects look at the mile end of most of the conference games, the coming season should not be one of easy roads, with the Pitts and Penns second to none.

BASEBALL

The Miami baseball team concluded a season that has been very disappointing for the former champions with a four game series against the Trinity Bears that took the Bears to the finals with a 4-0 victory over the Bears.

The Bears' pitching was excellent against the Bears' bats, and the Bears' offense was strong against the Bears' defense. The Bears' batting average was over .300, while the Bears' pitching average was under 4.00.

A powerful Illinois University team came to Ohio for the final game of the series, and the Bears were forced to adjust their batting order to accommodate the Bears' pitching. The Bears' winning pitcher was优秀的, and the Bears' defense was solid.

The Bears' hitting was excellent, with over 10 hits in the game, and the Bears' pitching was effective, with a 3.00 earned run average.

Overall, the Bears' season was disappointing, but they showed improvement in many areas throughout the year. The Bears' batting average was over .250, and their pitching average was under 5.00.

The Bears' last game of the season was against the Bears, and they won in a close game with a 5-4 victory. The Bears' winning pitcher was excellent, and the Bears' defense was solid.

The Bears' batting average was over .300, and their pitching average was under 4.00.

CROSS COUNTRY

Miami’s Bariers experienced a successful season but fell in the title match. In recent years, their results have not been as strong. They opened the season with a win against the University of Florida, but the following week, they lost to Georgia Tech. Despite these losses, they managed to secure a spot in the conference finals.

In the conference finals, Miami faced their arch-rival, Southern University. The match was intense, with both teams putting in their best efforts. However, Miami fell short of their goal, losing the match. This marked the end of their successful season.

TRACK

Miami’s track team continued their tradition of excellence. The team has a long history of success, having won numerous championships. They started their season with a strong performance, winning against Florida State. However, their winning streak came to an end when they lost to Georgia Tech.

The team faced another challenge when they competed against the University of Florida. Despite their best efforts, they fell short of their goal, losing the match. This marked the end of their successful season.

The tennis season squad fell short of its goal to bring home the Buckeye championship for the second year in succession (see spring), but the local team showed great improvement.

Throughout the season, the team was led by Moore, who played as well as taught. George Byrnes, Oberle, Moore, Fred Rabide, Ed Gross, Berry, and Thompson, Howard, Sparrow, and the other members of the team, were all excellent. Games against the University of Illinois, Thompson, Bannerman, and Specter will be competitive next spring.

The season team was also coached by Moore and several potential singles men won their matches.

Intercollegiate Athletic Rules of the Buckeye Intercollegiate Athletic Conference

In the winter of 1895, several Ohio schools met at Columbus to arrange more realistic schedules for their teams. At this meeting, a progress-making group helped announce the Buckeye Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. The schools were: Ohio State, Ohio University, and Cincinnati. This conference included all teams that were willing to cooperate. In the spring, the conference was extended to include Miami, Wittenberg, Wabash, Clarence, Ohio Wesleyan, and Denison, as members. The Buckeye Intercollegiate Athletic Conference was organized for the purpose of scheduling better schedules. In 1896, the conference requested the Buckeye Association to decline and enter that year's competition. The Association's answer was to be very satisfactory, the above six schools having withdrawn from the Ohio Conference. The Buckeye Intercollegiate Athletic Conference was formed, and has maintained its proper position ever since.
by the rules more strictly enforced a year later.

In 1932, Mobile and Wakefield, two big school teams, were admitted to the Con ference as probationary members for a year. At the conclusion of the 1889 season, Mobile withdrew. The Southern Conference then, and for a reason, decided they could not afford to lose the group of competition and the potential of plant they would bring to the league and that therefore they could not afford regular members of the Conference.

of the 1942 football season. President Denison feared that they could not get the same kind of attendance that the Cougars brought to the game. Kennesaw was a member during the 1924-1925 season and December, 1921, meeting, was admitted to probationary membership. The year kennasaw was in the Conference was with the 1924-1925 football season.

The addition of Marshall to the Conference in 1937, the University of Virginia has been a member of the group ever since.

THE VARSITY "M"
Five major sports are on the Miami schedule—football, basketball, baseball, track and the country. Two minor sports, tennis and pool, complete the sports season.

"M" is awarded only for Unconditional recognition. The award is made by the Athletic Advisory Board and the letter does not become the property of the recipient until the year in which the award is made, although the individual may take it with him in his pocket and he may be permitted to use it, provided he does not use it for any other purposes than strictly athletic.

The individual making the requirements for an award has rights in regard to such award, but in no case can he receive the award unless the institution to which he belongs is a member of the conference. If no institution is a member of the conference, he shall not receive the award.

The awards are made by the conference in the fall of the year and are not renewable, except on recommendation of the conference. If a conference school is in good standing and in good standing of the conference, the board reserves the right to withdraw the letter from such school.

If the recipient leaves the conference school, he loses his letter. No award is made to any person who has not completed the requirements stated above and no award is made to any person who is not a member of a conference school.

No one shall be eligible to receive any award who has not fulfilled the terms of the sport or the participation in some pro-injuries from doing so by illness or injury. For a performance of unusual merit in minor sports, the Athletic Board may, by a majority vote, grant a medal. The Board is composed of six members, three appointed by the Advisory Committee on Athletics, and three appointed by the President of the University. Applications for medals must be made to the Secretary of the Board.

INTRAMURAL

An integral part of any school's athletic program should be a large and diversified intramural program, and at the University of Miami, intramural athletics have long been a trademark. The intramural program at Miami is wide, diversified, and well organized. It plays second role in college life only to the varsity teams.

Here at Miami intramural activities fall into three seasons: fall, winter, and spring. During the fall leagues are organized in outdoor sports such as soccer, football, and tennis. In the winter season tournaments are held in bowling, fencing, wrestling, and shuffleboard.

In the winter season tournaments are held in bowling, wrestling, fencing, ping pong, and shuffleboard.

Immediately after the spring holidays, intramural tournaments begin in the same sports as in the fall. In addition, tennis, softball, and basketball are added.

Besides the enjoyment and benefits gained from participation in these sports there are definite incentives to play. Miami men can be intramural. In the winning team in each sport sports as basketball, softball, and volleyball hardwood trophies are awarded.

Gold, silver, and bronze medals are awarded to the individual winners of the tennis tournaments, boxing champions in the weight division, fencing champions in the foil-foil and advanced classes.

In recent years several new features were introduced, such as a new class to enter on the new men at the University and to increase the interest of the freshmen.

Besides suggestion, nearly all the activities in the greek system now compete with only the fraternities and the sororities. The fraternities have taken over the offices of the greek system. The greek system is now for a freshman to belong to a fraternity to compete in intramurals. The greek system is no longer the most popular.

To the Greeks can have more than the fraternities.

At the close of each year, each year a handball and basketball are awarded to the greek system. The greek system has the most amount of people. The greek system is in a state of flux. The greek system is the same as it was in the past.

In most greek sports such as baseball and basketball, the teams are formed with more formal lines. But there are some exceptions. The greek system is the most popular in the University.

NEW STUDENTS

When you arrive in Oxford, whether by train or bus, you will find a train station in the centre of town. Life or she will tell you where to go and what to do. Do not be afraid to ask questions; that is what they are there for. Furthermore, the town has a number of student services like the International Office which can be very helpful.

If you do not know, the number of your room, students should go immediately to the Student Services Office in the Tower of London. The Student Services staff there will provide you with the necessary information. You may not have time to pay much attention to it in the first few weeks, but a quick look at the room is a great place for homework.

OXFORD

Oxford is a town of about 30,000 people. The University is located on the outskirts of the town. The town itself consists of a main street, a high street, and a number of smaller streets which make up the central area. To get to the central area, you can either use the main bus, which goes every 10 minutes, or walk down the hill. The main street is 100 meters long, and one can easily walk up and down the hill in 15 minutes. The University is located at the far end of the main street.

SUMMARY OF EXPENSES

The expenses for the year which are charged to students are as follows:

M. Women
Registration fee (one-half pay) $200.00 $200.00
Health fee $10.00 $10.00
Student activity fee $10.00 $10.00
Room in dormitory $350.00 $350.00
Rent in shared house $300.00 $300.00
Laundry of bed sheets $10.00 $10.00
Semitractor's boat fee $1.00 $1.00

The above estimate does not include laboratory charges or books, which are estimated at $200.00.

WHAT TO BRING

When you start packing up to come to Oxford, the following suggestions might be helpful:

- Towel, sheets, pillowcases, and blankets.
- Rugs or carpeting for the dormitory, if possible.
- A book bag or backpack for carrying books.
- A mouse and mouse pad for the computer.
- A book (or two) to read in the library.
WHAT TO WEAR

GIRL

In choosing a wardrobe for college remember two things:

1. Select simply tailored, durable clothes.
2. Bring only what you are sure you will need. Let quality, not quantity, be the basis for your selection.

Dormitory formal dinners, security banquets: Dressing gowns with sleeves or short jacket.

FRESHMAN WEEK

Freshman week was inaugurated at Miami Dec. 1, under the direction of the director of student activities, Miss Betsy S. Thomas. The purpose of the freshman week is to familiarize freshmen with all the customs and traditions of the university, and to orient them in the use of the facilities. The week is devoted to general and special events and activities.

The opening event of the week was the freshman banquet, held in the Alumni building. Following the banquet, freshmen were taken on a tour of the campus, and were introduced to the various organizations and clubs.

The second event of the week was the freshman parade, held in front of the main building. The parade was led by the freshman class and followed by the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. The parade was accompanied by a band and a float, and was well attended by the students and faculty.

The third event of the week was the freshman dance, held in the gymnasium. The dance was well attended, and the students had a great time.

The final event of the week was the freshman picnic, held on the campus. The picnic was enjoyed by all, and was a great success.

The freshman week was a great success, and the freshmen were well oriented to the university and its customs. The week was a great help to the freshmen in their adjustment to college life, and was a great success.

Two meetings are used to explain the different courses offered at Miami and to check up on the vocational interests of each student. The remainder of the week is devoted to discussions of college rules and regulations, the role of the student in college life, attendance, grades, honor societies, organizations, campus activities, fraternity life, etc. A tour of the campus is made so that each student may have a glimpse of the whole University.

FRESHMAN TIPS

The purpose of these initial tips is to guide you through the early weeks of college life by helping you to utilize the opportunities offered so that you may grow intellectually, emotionally, and socially in order to satisfy the needs of your present and future observations. As you will see, the schedule of classes is fairly crowded. There will be valuable information given at each one which you should study carefully. It is advisable to set aside a night each week for the examination of the daily bulletin in which you live. A copy of the rules is not ignored you. Find out from someone

The social affairs of Freshman week are to help you get acquainted. Go to them, and don't stand on the sidelines. Get into the spirit of the things. You are in a foreign land, and you will be judged by what you do here, not what you say you will do there. The "Miami Spirit" is nationally known.

She is a graduate of Oxford and has had many years of experience in social work. Mrs. Beale believes in giving a great amount of time in promoting a wise social program and in setting and enforcing rules and regulations. She believes that the social shortcomings are to be avoided by social service.

The second floor of the Main Building is the office of the social director, Mrs. Beale. She directs all social functions held every year. The Thursday night, the fortnight night, the Junior Prom and the Senior Ball are all directed by her. For these dances she looks to Alumnae, and students for volunteers to assist her. She believes in giving a great amount of time in promoting a wise social program and in setting and enforcing rules and regulations. She believes that the social shortcomings are to be avoided by social service.

The Junior Prom and the Senior Ball are both held on the Main Building. The Junior Prom is held on the Wednesday night of the second week of the month, and the Senior Ball is held on the Saturday night of the last week of the month. The Main Building Social Club sponsors all-campuses events such asballroom dancing, and these are informal, no-cost affairs. There is also a dance class, and the dances are open to all.

The dancing is of the more conservative type. The "hot" style is not used, and by doing so you make a part of your self on the floor.

There is nothing a restriction time at all. You are free to do as you please. However, good taste demands that you should come late, with them during the evening, and then leave the floor at a reasonable hour. Thus you avoid the meeting one really born to fully enjoy the dance room. You will find
The Miami Chrest

Several years ago the members of the Miami Chrest society were appalled to learn of some embarrassing incidents among some of their associates. This year they have taken the advice of the students and have initiated a campaign to correct the situation. The Miami Chrest society consists of a group of students who pledge to refrain from the use of alcoholic beverages during the fall term. The members of the society are determined to set a good example for the rest of the student body.

The Miami Chrest society has decided to hold a fund-raising drive this year to support their activities. The drive will be held on the first Saturday of November, and all members of the society will be participating. The money raised will be used to defray the cost of the activities of the society and to support other student organizations.

The Miami Chrest society is grateful for the support they have received from the student body in the past. They hope that their efforts this year will be appreciated and that the support they receive will be even greater than in the past.

(Alma Mater)
Old Miami, from thy hill apart
Thou hast watched the decades roll
While thy sons have quoted from thee
Sternly hearse, pure of soul.
Old Miami, new Miami!
Days of old and days to be
Weave the story of thy glory.
Our Miami, love’s to thee!
Adorin in thy purple splendor
Thou the calm and they the storm,
Then shall give them joy in conquest.
Strength from thee sustained their arm.
Thou shalt stand a constant beacon.
Crimson towers against the sky.
Now a still voice with in the air
Frolic shall thee call every one.
Thou shalt stand a constant beacon.

MIAI DIRECTORY

The Miami Directory is issued by the University annually after an actual census is taken of the student body. The directory contains a list of all the faculty and administrative members with their offices, addresses and telephone numbers. It also has a list of the class presidents, offices of the student organizations, such as S.C.C., and YWCA and the University colors—

THE NEWS LETTER

The News Letter is the University publish- er which is issued with the purpose of keeping a close bond between Miami and its students. Captured all year, the News Letter is published weekly by the student newspaper department of the school in a brief and concise manner, giving the results of athletic contests and furnishing all other information of interest to the alumni.

THE N.Y.A. AT MIAI
Since February 1934, Miami has received a grant of aid for needy students under the National Youth Administration Plan of the Federal Government. This aid was continued for the school year of 1937-38. The aid is now before Congress. During the past year over 300 students each month were served. Some made all possible and are now married. Some made all possible and are doing well, but the funds are so small that it is impossible to serve more than 300 students.

This aid for tuition, fees, and books and made it possible for many to attend college who otherwise would not have been able to do so.

Student who work on NYA are a selected group. The Federal government requires that students have an average in intellectual attainments to be eligible for NYA. The largest number enrolled at one time was 2,450,456, where there were 242 on the campus this year. The average number in class was graduated, the remainder scattered among the three classes. Freshmen are required to have a minimum of 40. The scholastic standing of the NYA group is considerably above the average. Last year the average was 2.92, a high figure considering that in addition to carrying full course loads they work from 8:30 to 10:30 in the afternoon and 8:30 to 12:30 at night. Many NYA students do other work and take part in athletics and all campus activities.

The projectiveness for students by working in the NYA is helping along their entire way with NYA help. However, the actual become more in that work can be counted on to be one of the most important of the entire out of attendance training.

There is a wide variety in the work done by NYA students. The number of projects is almost inconceivable. Some of the projects are to help in the work of the department of the student, or in his own interests and work in which he is engaged by teaching or education. A large number of students are involved in a wide range of activities in society, including research, training, or laboratory, the growing and testing of plants, and other tasks.

In addition to the work on the campus a number of students are doing community service of various kinds. The work after the internship period is this somewhat, but both the work and the training is important.
