Around the World in Two-and-a-Half Days

Reunion 2007 was attended by 150 Western College and Western College Program alums and guests, including 16 former international students. Class flags from anniversary years (2's and 7's) were not the only flags flying -- lining the Patterson Place sidewalk were the national flags of the many foreign countries represented. Miami's president, David Hodge, paid tribute to Western's international tradition in his address at Friday night's Welcome Dinner; a panel of international alumnae shared experiences from their student days with an attentive audience Saturday morning; and at Sunday morning's chapel program, speaker Ameerah Haq ’71, who came to Western from East Pakistan (now Bangladesh), chose her theme from the poem "Ithaka," by Constantine Cavafy, which begins: "When setting out upon your way to Ithaca/ wish always that your course be long/ full of adventure, full of lore." But to see what we're talking about, click here.

As you can tell by viewing the slide show, appreciation of Western's global education is strong. To help it continue, Western alumnae decided that the 2007 Reunion Gift would create a new International Scholarship endowment. Our goal is $100,000. To date, we have raised nearly $70,000. If we ALL pull together, we can reach this goal today! Just go to the secure website, give/pledge as little as $30, and YOU will be part of making this grand scholarship possible!

And to be sure you don't miss June Reunion 2008, go to your calendar now and circle these dates: June 13-15! It will be the fourth annual All-Western Reunion, especially honoring those class years ending in 3 or 8, and welcoming all!
