"Play It Again...Western," We Did!
For our first act, an appreciative audience of more than 150 alums and guests went to the theater (Leonard Theatre to see Turkish shadow puppets), interacted with a performance artist (impersonating Helen Peabody) and sat for portraits (sketched by an accomplished amateur caricaturist).

On Saturday, we sang along with a marching band (in the Saturday morning parade), participated in a book discussion (based on Phyllis Hoyt's memoir), and enjoyed the renderings of a steel drum band (background music for the Patterson Place lawn reception). Then it was showtime at the Saturday night banquet, complete with celebrities, elegant cuisine, and toasts and awards galore!

For the final act Sunday morning, beautiful music and beautiful words played in Kumler Chapel. Encore? The traditional farewell brunch in Alexander, where cries were heard for a repeat performance next year!
